Your electricity account is enrolled in Lexington's Community Choice Program, our Town's group electricity buying program. Since launching in 2017, the program has saved Lexington electricity customers more than $32.2 million compared with Eversource's prices, though future savings compared with Eversource cannot be guaranteed.

Through the program, you receive a Lexington-specific price for the supply portion of your Eversource bill. You are enrolled in the Basic option, which means you receive the lowest price available in the program.

In December, your price will change as the current program prices expire and new, 4-year prices take effect. Electricity supply prices have increased since the current program prices were secured, so your new price will be higher than your current price.

- Your current electricity supply price is 13.816 ¢/kWh. Your new price will be 15.226 ¢/kWh.
- Your new price will be fixed from December 2026 until December 2030, giving you long-term price stability.
- Your new price will be lower than Eversource's current electricity supply prices. See the table for details.

Your new electricity supply price:
15.226 ¢/kWh
Look for it on your January bill.

Lexington's New England Green option provides 100% renewable electricity from within the New England region for 17.727 ¢/kWh.
